The Star must have slipped its trolley when it sought to sand bag the Cabinet with the Loebenstein incident. Fortunately or unfortu nately this paper is not an apolo gist for the Cabinet but it believes in fair treatment. Mr. Lochen stein is hired by the survey department by the day. It is not to be supposed that the law against members of the Legislature holding office inteferes with a man's regular business. If Mr. Loeben- diers proceeded out to camp. stein is not a good workman, the Government ought to "fire" him, but this is the only basis on up in the Police Court Monday which he should be relieved of the morning on the charge of disturb work given him. A good example of what can be accomplished in legislation is given in the recent bankruptcy law passed by Congress. This left camp they had organized a backed by the commercial organizations of New York. In its appearance before the public and in Congress, the Torrey law was nominally a western measure. The New Yorkers did not come to the surface because they knew the howl against Wall street would immediately be raised. Many similar instances might be cited where much valuable legislation has been obtained through the instrumentality of wide-awake business organizations.

It is supposed that the primary object of the Hilo Chamber Com m -rce is to see to it that Honolulu das not get more than its share. That is all right. What is worth having is worth fighting for in the business world. We trust the new little sense. The governorship of organization will prove itself an active competing body. It will ington and the influence of one or brace up Honolulu and make the have more important bearing on mon of the territory more effective

MARCHOUT DEFERRED.

New Yorkers Could Not Get Baggage Wagons Today.

The expected marchout of Co H, 1st New York Volunteers, did not take place this morning. It to mention belong to that horrible was not the rain that prevented it either. Captain Hitchcock could not get the use of the army baggage wagons, because they were employed in bauling things from rived yesterday afternoon from Manila.

The company will probably take up the line of march tomorrow for the tour of this island. It will be out for ten days.
